THE TOLEDO MUSEUM OF ART
FOUNDED BY EDWARD DRUMMOND LIBBEY
SUMMER 1964

MEMBERSHIP GROWS

Once every two years it has been the Art Museum's custom to publish a list of its members. The current list as of May 23, published here, is the largest in the Museum's history numbering 4,525. Credit for this considerable increase goes to the Art Museum's Aides and the hundreds of volunteer membership campaign workers.

To our many new members we extend a cordial welcome. The Art Museum thanks all members for their support of the free education programs for children which mean so much to the community.

Increased contributions for Museum endowment are also needed if the Museum is to continue its activities, some of which are illustrated in these pages. Many Toledoans have generously contributed and bequeathed capital funds to the Museum Endowment Fund. The names of these generous benefactors are recorded in this issue. Their names also appear permanently on the bronze plaques in the Museum.

The Museum will continue to grow and to serve in direct proportion to the growth of new funds made available by a generous and interested community.

BACK COVER: Registration Day for art and music classes at the Museum is an exciting, long anticipated event for thousands of children.

YOUR MUSEUM GROWS THROUGH MEMBERSHIP

The Toledo Museum's initial, and still basic, policy is not only to collect great works of art, but to use these treasures in teaching. Your membership helps thousands of children to explore the joys of art and music in the Museum. The extensive educational program is world-famous, the largest and most complete of its kind. Many tours and classroom activities for children are possible because of membership contributions, which are used exclusively for children's free education.

Supporting children's free art education at the Museum is a satisfying purpose of Museum membership. The Art Museum is a non-profit, charitable institution. Our children's heritage in art and music depends on the continuing dynamic character of your Art Museum. This depends on you.

Through Membership, you are identified with a major cultural institution. Your benefits as a Member include invitations to previews of major exhibitions, subscription to the Museum News, special lectures on art, discount on publications and reproductions at the Information Center, and notice of monthly activities through the Calendar of Events.

Participation in art and music activities in the Museum may be enjoyed by Members and their friends at exhibitions, lectures and special events. As a Member you contribute:

Active Member	$10
Contributing Member	$25
Sustaining Member	$50
Supporting Member	$100
